

Meet the Navy's Bank Liaison Officer

Mr. Dean Hunstad is currently a staff accountant with the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Financial Management and Comptroller) (Office of Financial Operations) ASN (FM&C) (FMO), in Washington, DC.

His primary areas of responsibilities include the Overseas Military Banking Program; the Navy's Financial Management of the Purchase Card Program, supporting the DoD Transportation Payment Reengineering effort to develop an Internet-based transportation payment system, and the domestic bank and credit union programs. "I take pride in improving the quality of life at each Department of the Navy installation through the delivery of financial services," says Hunstad.

Prior to his current assignment he served as the Navy's lead for the implementation of the interim migratory accounting system, Defense Industrial Financial Management System, within the Navy's Working Capital Fund activities. Mr. Hunstad also held positions at the Naval Air Systems Command; the Defense Finance and Accounting Service Washington Center; and the Navy Accounting and Finance Center; he was a NAVCOMPT Trainee. Mr. Hunstad has a Bachelors degree in Accounting.

